

What about the city of Santo Domingo

By kyle jam

The city of Santo Domingo is a very important place in the Dominican Republic not only because this is the capital or main city but also the center of all kind of business and political activities to the rest of the nation. In terms of tourism and places to visit Santo Domingo you will have a wide range of place that you can visit it is visited each year by millions people from several nations around the world there are cruises from the most prestigious travel agencies such as Carnival and others that bring visitors from all places of the world to the port of Saint Souci and Caucedo ,it is a city full of restaurants, hotels, motels dancing clubs and more. This city is basically divided as the traditional way in a colonial zone that is part of the old Santo Domingo where you will find a historical and cultural richness that everybody should know. But also you will have a part known as the zona oriental located to the eastern margin of the Ozama river as well as the occidental part. In both parts of the cities you will have all kind of great places to visit.

Santo Domingo is a colorful city and almost everyday you will have all kind of activities. In the eastern part of Santo Domingo you will realize that every night is a big party everywhere mainly in an avenue named Venezuela where you will find several dancing clubs such as La Barrica, House Drink, Wuao Wuao and other important dancing clubs. In the city center of Santo Domingo you will find a lot of dancing clubs to visit. The night is very active and Dominicans living in the capital are always looking of an excuse to drink any kind of beverage such as Cerveza or beer, whisky, vodka and more. Santo Domingo is a wonderful city that you should visit and you will never forget how lovely people are.

If you are truly looking for a wonderful fun Filled Vacation let us help you plan a Dominican Republic Vacation

TerrazzoRichard Dasch is President of Rose Restoration International, celebrating 30 Years of Marble & Stone Restoration in the worlds finest hotels.